Student Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)

This policy applies to all students at Stony Dean School

What is an AUP?

An AUP (Acceptable Use Policy) is a set of rules that we expect all students at Stony Dean to follow when using our ICT equipment and devices.

What am I agreeing to?

When I log into the school system I agree to the following:

- I agree to my internet usage being monitored and filtered to help keep me safe.
- I agree to my email account being monitored and filtered to help keep me safe. I am responsible for my email address and I will do the following:
 - I will not share my personal information or the personal information of others.
 - I will not share images of myself or others.
 - I will use positive and appropriate language.
- I will not log in or attempt to access someone else's account or email address.
- I will not share my account information with anyone.
- I will not try to access parts of the school system that I am not allowed.
- I will not hack or attempt to hack the school system.
- I will not access pornographic material, inappropriate websites or files that could harm the school network.
- I will only use appropriate and positive language when accessing the school network on any device.
- I agree to tell a trusted adult if I see or access any unpleasant materials. This will help keep me and my friends safe. I will use the school guidance of "Record it, Block it and Report it".
- I am not allowed to bring personal devices to school, unless I have permission from my head of year or from Mr Strain.
- I will not use USB sticks or other storage devices at school.
- I understand that I am not allowed to access the school Wi-Fi on a personal electronic device.
- Above all, I will be KIND ONLINE

I understand that if I break any of the rules above:

- My account will be inspected.
- My account will be blocked.
- My right to access the school network and the internet will be stopped.
- I will have consequences for my actions and choices.

When Using Zoom and Seesaw

- I will not share recorded videos/lessons made by teachers within or outside of Stony Dean School.
- I will only use positive and acceptable language when talking or when typing,
- I will hang up at the end of the lesson once instructed to do so. My teacher must be the last person in the meeting to hang up.

By signing this document, I have read, understood and agreed to the rules above.
